NOTELET

MORE FAMILY FUN...

NO-ONE EVER FORGETS THE FIRST TIME THEY HEARD A LIVE ORCHESTRA – AND WE'RE HERE TO MAKE THAT MOMENT SPECIAL!

Both Notelets and Family Concerts are specifically designed for families and are approximately an hour long. They are created with younger listeners in mind, and offer the perfect introduction to orchestral music – no matter how old you are!

FAMILY CONCERT: FAIRY TALES

Sunday 8 October 2023, 3:00pm

Our new Chief Conductor Kazuki can't wait for his first Family Concert, and with Birmingham's own brilliant poet Casey Bailey as his right-hand man, this is going to be one magical afternoon! With music perfectly picked for families, join us as we venture into the world of classic fairy tales set to music by Ravel, Grieg and Holly Harrison.

NOTELETS: 8 & 9 DECEMBER

Friday 8 – Saturday 9 December 2023

Music-making doesn't have an age limit! Notelets are fun-filled interactive concerts that give children the freedom to dance, sing and learn about musical instruments for the first time. Each concert has a different theme and features a wonderful book set to music, to delight and engage your little ones. Plus, there is a chance to meet the musicians and have a go at some of the instruments after every concert!

FAMILY CONCERT: YOUNG PERSON'S GUIDE

Sunday 25 February 2024

A fun-filled introduction to the orchestra for the whole family! Ok, so what exactly is an orchestra? Why is the piccolo so small? Why is the tuba so big? And what on earth does a xylophone sound like? In this entertaining concert for the whole family, the CBSO will show you how it all works – with a bit of help from Benjamin Britten's Young Person's Guide!

Join us for FREE craft activities up to an hour before every Family Concert and Notelets performance! Our Notelets concerts are recommended for toddlers and young children. Babies under 9 months do not require a ticket.

All Notelets and Family Concerts are BSL interpreted.
